

We visited Irlam Train station and looked at the Celebrity Express which had been painted by Rachelle. The following week we visited Rachelle in her studio, whilst we were there she taught us how to draw a portrait using lots of 'c's and she explained how to mix skin colour. When we came back to school we decided to draw our own self-portraits and use them in our own train.

This is the Year 2G Toucan Express.

